In celebration of the 50th anniversary of Formula 1 racing in Canada, Canada Post has issued a supercharged set of stamps featuring five of the fastest drivers ever to capture the checkered flag at the FORMULA 1 GRAND PRIX DU CANADA – each representing a different decade in the history of the race.

Designed by Paprika of Montréal, the stamps appear as miniature racing posters. In addition to classic photos of the five showcased drivers, each stamp offers a stylized overhead view of the car used to secure victory. This level of detail is carried over to the five Official First Day Covers, where the cancel on each cover represents the particular wheel and rim of each driver’s winning race car.

In addition to the OFDCs (sold individually or as a set), the issue includes a booklet of 10 stamps (two stamps of each of the five designs), a pane of five gummed stamps, an uncut press sheet and several framed collectibles of these featured drivers.

1 Scottish speedster Sir Jackie Stewart, who dominated F1 racing in the late 1960s and early 1970s.
2 Canada’s hometown hero Gilles Villeneuve, a force to be reckoned with from the late 1970s to early 1980s.
3 The fierce and fearless Brazilian driver Ayrton Senna won the trophy at the FORMULA 1 GRAND PRIX DU CANADA in 1988 and 1990.
4 Germany’s competitive, consistent Michael Schumacher captured an unrivalled seven FORMULA 1 GRAND PRIX DU CANADA wins between 1994 and 2004.
5 Englishman and active driver Lewis Hamilton raced onto the F1 circuit and became the youngest Grand Prix World Champion in history in his second year.
