DEAR COLLECTORS

A leaping monkey heralds the start of a new leap year

Happy 2016 and welcome to this year’s first issue of Details. We’re pretty proud of what you’ll find inside. First up are the Year of the Monkey stamps and collectibles – the latest in our continuing series on the Lunar New Year. We’ll issue these stamps in two waves starting with the domestic-rate stamps January 11. The international stamps will swing into post offices February 1 – just in time for the start of the Lunar New Year, February 8. Next are the domestic definitives of five UNESCO stamps we originally issued in May 2014 as U.S. and international commemoratives. We’re also revealing a new stamp honouring Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II that features a photograph by world-famous fashion photographer David Bailey, taken to mark our Sovereign’s 88th birthday. We hope you like it as much as we do and enjoy the other great stamp issues we have planned for the rest of the year.

CELEBRATE THE LUNAR NEW YEAR

YEAR OF THE MONKEY

Domestic-rate stamp
Issue date: January 11, 2016

The eighth stamp in the Lunar New Year series celebrates the Year of the Monkey, which begins February 8, 2016, and ends January 27, 2017.

The ninth creature in the lunar cycle is an all-powerful symbol of honour, luck, riches and longevity, according to Chinese custom. Monkey symbols traditionally include an element of “godliness” – one of the reasons they are ubiquitous in classic Chinese art and architecture.

Those lucky enough to be born in the Year of the Monkey count brilliance, flexibility, skillfulness and inventiveness among their traits, along with an excellent memory, an iron will and a strong drive to succeed. On the downside, Monkeys are said to be easily frustrated by delays, tend to look down on others and have a fast-flaring temper that (fortunately) cools quickly. Canadians born in this lunar year include singer Céline Dion, actress Kim Cattrall and legendary pianist Glenn Gould.

These domestic and international stamps were inspired by the legend of the Monkey King Sun Wukong, one of the main characters in the classic

Chinese novel Journey to the West. Also transformed into a famous Chinese opera, the story tells of how the sovereign accompanied the monk Xuanzang on a journey to India to retrieve Buddhist texts known as sutras.

In keeping with previous issues, the domestic and international stamps come together on a stylized souvenir sheet and an uncut press sheet.

A transitional souvenir sheet heralding the end of the Ram’s reign and the start of the Monkey’s year is also available.

Designed by Albert Ng and Linna Xu, the stamps not only depict the Monkey imagery but also feature popular New Year’s greetings, which appear at the edge of the pane and on all of the souvenir sheets.

Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II has posed for some of the greatest photographers of the two centuries bridged by her life and reign. While images captured by such legends as Marcus Adams, Dorothy Wilding, Cecil Beaton and Yousuf Karsh have appeared on previous Canadian stamps, this year’s royal issue was snapped by one of the world’s pre-eminent fashion photographers, David Bailey.

The black-and-white photograph featured on the stamp was commissioned for Her Majesty’s 88th birthday.

Still working in his mid-70s, Bailey has photographed royals and other celebrities for five decades. His trademark – stark-contrast shots, creative use of lighting – and unique ability to capture the personality of his subject at the click of a button have set the standard for fashion photography in such publications as Vogue and GQ.

UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE SITES IN CANADA
Issue date: January 11, 2016

If the images on these definitive stamps look familiar, it’s because larger versions of the same ones appeared on U.S. and international-rate commemoratives issued in May 2014.

Designed by Lara Minja, of Lime Design, this second set of UNESCO definitives showcases the natural, historical and cultural treasures in our country that have been designated as important “to the common heritage of humanity.” They also allow you to share these incredible locations with friends and family at home and around the world.

The five sites on these Permanent™ domestic-rate stamps – the Landscape of Grand Pré (N.S.), the Rideau Canal (Ont.), SGang Gwaay (B.C.), Head-Smashed-In Buffalo Jump (Alta.) and Old Town Lunenburg (N.S.) – are among 17 UNESCO World Heritage sites in Canada. Another seven are tentatively listed for designation. Parks Canada is responsible for the implementation of the World Heritage Convention in Canada and the protection and conservation of 12 of these amazing sites.

Even at a smaller size, the richness of our Canadian heritage shines brightly.

The men of the No. 2 Construction Battalion left Halifax March 28, 1917, to assist with Canada’s war effort in Europe. This stamp, designed by Lara Minja of Lime Design, recognizes the contributions they made and the challenges they met – including the discrimination they faced before leaving home.

When war broke out in 1914, Canadians heeded the call to enlist. Black Canadians, however, were less than welcome in the eyes of some recruiters, and many were turned away due to prejudice. On July 5, 1916, faced with protests and a need for manpower, militia officials created a special unit where these proud men could serve their country as part of the Forestry Corps in France.

The men of the No. 2 Construction Battalion harvested, milled and shipped timber to the Western Front. In camp, they faced harsh conditions, segregated accommodations and back-breaking work. Some did not return home. A few found ways to join other units and fought at Vimy Ridge and in other battles.

“This stamp celebrates the drive, commitment and effort of these somewhat forgotten soldiers,” says Minja. “I hope that uncovering their story allows them to take their fair place in Canadian history.”

How to order

Payment by cheque
Please make payment in Canadian funds, by money order, bank draft or cheque payable to Canada Post. Cheques over $1,500 must be certified. Do not send cash through the mail. The cash-on-delivery (COD) option is not available.

Payment by credit card
Payment by credit card is no longer accepted by mail. Visa™, MasterCard™ and American Express™ are accepted for orders online or by telephone only.

Returns
Contact Philatelic Customer Service for a return authorization number (RAN) to return an item. The number should be included in the package for prompt service.

Making your selection

Quantity
When expressing the desired quantity, state the number in configurations of stamps required. For example, if you’re ordering three upper left corner blocks, write 3 (not 12).

GST or HST
Add 5% GST or 13% HST (Ont., N.L. and N.B.), 15% HST (N.S.) or 14% HST (P.E.I.).

PST
Residents of B.C., Que., Man. and Sask., please calculate PST on applicable products.

There is a different product number for each configuration within a stamp issue.

Every effort is made to ensure that product descriptions and suggested retail prices are accurate and up to date, errors and omissions excepted. Canada Post reserves the right to vary prices and product descriptions at any time without notice. Individual post offices may sell items for less.

FREE SHIPPING

On October 29 Canada Post introduced free shipping on product orders of $25 (pre-tax) or more - whether you order online, by telephone, fax or mail, or when you order at the post office and have it shipped to you. The previous $2 fee on orders placed by telephone, mail or fax will now be waived. For orders under $25 (pre-tax) a $4.99 shipping fee will apply (excluding standing orders). Order more - and save.

Yearbook of Canadian stamps

From our first prime minister to our NHL® gamesavers, from honorary Canadian citizen Nelson Mandela to Nobel Prize winner Alice Munro and the FIFA Women’s World Cup™, Collection Canada 2015 commemorates and celebrates our Canadian stories.

Your copy will contain the following:
• every Canadian stamp issued in 2015;
• engaging stories, breathtaking photographs and illustrations that bring moments and milestones to life;
• more than 59 mint stamps;
• protective mounts to preserve your stamps.
