

Shipping to international destinations

Go international with shipping solutions that don't feel foreign.

When it's time to send parcels, documents or samples around the world, why not choose a company with the solutions, experience and global reach that can help you transcend borders? Canada Post: your trusted delivery partner for sending worldwide.

Around the world on your terms

Big or small shipment, time-sensitive or not, we have a parcel service that addresses your needs.

Select the right speed and cost

We offer you choice. From our *Priority*TM Worldwide service for critical rush shipments to our economical Small PacketTM service for small low-value items—there's an international shipping service that's right for your business.

Tap into an extensive worldwide network

When you're ready to extend your business across international borders, we can help. We offer delivery service for documents and parcels to hundreds of destinations around the world.

Customize your service

We'll work with you to tailor our service to your specific business needs. You can choose options such as additional coverage up to $1,000, Return to Sender, oversized items, Scheduled or On-Demand Pickup—and more.

Trace major delivery milestones

If parcel visibility is important to you, you'll be interested in the tracking functionality included with the Priority Worldwide and XpresspostTM – International services.

Enjoy the peace of mind that comes with connections

We have established relationships with postal administrations around the world, ensuring that when your parcels travel abroad, they travel there smoothly.

Through our extensive network of international partners, we can offer you the timely, economical and reliable services you need for all your international shipping needs.
